AMERICAN SYSTEM OF DENTISTRY 11. QUEEN'S ROAD CENTRAL, From the University of Pennsylvania, U.S.A.

Hargkong, toth April, 1905

FOR THE PRESIDENCY.

MR. DRYAN'S THIRD TRY FOR THE WILL

New York, 5 Oct. The Republican reconnoitring cry for the political battle of November, 1908, is, as I have already pointed out-"Third Term or Tait'; but the party conventions do not meet before next summer, and it is quite on the cards that the sentiment for Governor Hughes, at present confined to the New England States, will travel westward later on. As far as the Democrats are concerned, it seems hardly possible to imagine any other candidate than William Jennings Bryan. The "World" and the "American"-the two Democratic newpapers with circulations immedsely greater than any other "daily" in the country-do not like him, but they hate Roosevelt and Taft; and unless a miracle happens and Hughes is nominated, the Pulitzer and Hears: organs will be compelled to endorse Bryan.

I do not believe there will be serious talk of attempting to nominate Mr. Hearst. Only the other day he declared he could not conceive anything that would induce him to be a Presidential candidate. It is true he has formed what he calls the lodependence League, which is supposed to consist of Democrats who entertain an undying hatred of Trust thieves and corporation attorneys. The league will no doubt hold its convention a lew days before the official Democrats, and may very likely endeayour to convince the latter that Hearst can command a larger popular vote than Bryan. A WELL-HATED MAN.

But Hearst is an impossible winner, and nobody recognises that fact more thoroughly than he does. He could not carry a single State under any colours, New York City. might elect him mayor, as it nearly did two years ago, when both political parties, including Tammany Hall, were actively opposing him. But he could not be sure of another city -not even the Democratic stronghold of Chicago. Few men in any country provoke fiercer hostility. For every enthusiastic reader of his yellow newspapers he has three rampant enemies. For years the thought of him has sent thrills of horror down the spine of suburbia; and every Church Congress has shuddered at his name. Until that feeling dies, all 'Hearst's millions and all his army of editors, reporters, advertising agents, and compositors will never send him to the White House or even persuade the Democratic Convention to put him in nomination.

He took the outburst of vituperation flung at his head during his campaign against Mr. "ughes last year very much to heart ; and his recent speeches have been al nost suspiciously mo?erate in tone. At Jamestown, for instance, he frankly declared, the honest millionaire capitalist was as worthy of his profits as the labourer of his hire, a sentiment which induced Harper's Weekly", to congratulate him on "having sobered down". America has not yet done with Hearst; but he is not likely to ba a force to be reckoned with next year. .

A MAGNETIC PERSONALITY There has been an attempt to boom New York's Lieutenant-Governor, Mr. Chapler, 07. who, as Mr. Hearst's colleague, was so handsome a victory on the Democratic ticket last autumo. But so long Mr. B yan is willing to stand-and everyone knows he has set his heart upon itno Democrat is likely to step in ahead of him. Bryan has something of Gladstone's magnetism. He is probably the most popular, and certainly the most torrential, orator is the country. In appearance you would mistake him for something between the handsome villain of melodrama and a head-waiter, He has a smile in reserve that means volumes-of votes; he used il when a witty interruption momentarily stops him in one of his speeches, and he takes care his audience shall have the full benefit of its love-like dimensions. His opponents laugh at him without ceasing. They call him. " the Great Commoner" and "the Peerless Oce." They ridicule him as the aposite of abandoned causes; and the advocate of free silver, of Federal control of the trunk railways, and of the referendum can hardly help admitting the soft impeachment, His home, as all the world knows, is at Lincoin, Nebrasks-in the Middle West, He spends his time in editing a weekly review called the "Commoner," which is quoted in every newspaper in the land, and in personally conducted lecture tours. He is still lecturing on what has been happily called his "splendid flight round the world." He discusses the Holy Land, the heathen Hiddus, Confucius and Constantinople, his interview with the Tear, "the most valuable half-hour of my life," the bow and the smile he gave the Queen of Norway, and what he thought of London and what London thought of him: Never does he fail to see his audience dissolve in delight, when he cries, "And I want to say to every young-lady I see before me that she can do far better by, marrying a healthy American of good habits than any remnant of European aristocracy, for those that are for sale are not worth the price." ROOSEVELT "STUNTS."

Of course he is a demagogue-in, the best sense of the term, a born leader of the people. So is Roosevelt. So is every Talker who is the object of such hero worship. Bryan is a man of much wider culture than Roosevelle A German said to me the other day, "Roosevelt is always doing stunts, and that is the secret of his popularity." That is true. A " stunt" is American along for any startling or novel act alculated to attract attention. My friend had in his mind the President's auxiety to have some dominating influence upon the life of every citizen of the Republic from the cradle to the grave, his efforts to settle strikes at home, and wars abroid, shoot bears in Arkansas,: expose natural history fakirs, teach mothers how to rear their children, and revise the English dictionary; to say nothing of his active pursuit of wicked mil ionaires. There is no repose about Roos velt : there is mb repose about the citizens of the country over [64 | which he rules. Perhaps the country, efter all.

would enjoy four years' rest; and should the Democrats win, that will be the chief reason that brings them victory. Listen to, this admirable little homily on "The First Rule for a Husband and Wife," addressed this mouth to seaders of the "Ladies" Home Journal, a periodical which, although published in Philadelphia, has I believe, without question, the largest circulation of any magazine in the world?"

There are hundreds of thousands of families in this country who are the strength and moral fibra of the land. These people buy only what they have the money to buy; they claim a fair reward for their labour, and yet give good measure in their service, and, laying aside year by year, they travel life's path together, their independence increasing as they proceed. Their children are trained to prudence by example as well as precept, and their own position in society and business becomes each day more secure, Such couples can contemplate old age with serenity, and in their family life present the fittest earthly type of H aven.

The author of these words is a very different type of mab to Mr. Roosevalt. Yet all the same he is equally close to the heatt of the American people.-H. T., C.-H. in Morning Leader.

"It was after the birth of my first child that I fell ill," said Mrs. T. II. Cox of Hospital Road: Mandalay. "The cause was lack of proper attention at this trying time. After getting up from my bed I was exceedingly weak. My blood was in an impoverished condition. I suffered from constant racking headaches, my whole body was full of pain. I got but 'little' sleep and my brain wandered a good deal. I had terrible dreams when did manage to get to sleep, and I had a bid? cough, at times coughing up small

The outcome of the Canton find. The foreign men-of-war stationed on meetings to morrow should be of interest as the West River could not be everywhere, and, exhibiting the feeling of the general body of consequently the piracles still went on as if the people on the subject, outside, the the guardboats were a myth. When the question of foreign interference,

Viceroy at Canton was communicated with

on the subject he plaintively remarked that piracy had always existed on the West River,

from time immemorial in fact, as if that covered the deliance of constituted authority with a clock of decency. But it was made clear to the Waiwupu that piracy could be suppressed if an adequate system of patrolling the river was adopted. Urged to action at last by the avowed intention of the Powers to deal with the matter in their own way, the Chinese Foreign Office decided that the days of shilly shallying had gone

past, and that if they were to hold their self-respect and their position in the world they must actually prove that they were determined to eradicate the desperadoes who had to a large extent dislocated river traffic by their frequent depredations and constantly successful coups. If the proper authorities confessed their inability to suppress the evils complained of then it was obvious that the-control and administration of law and order

on the waterways of South China must pass

state of opinion in China such 'a thing was not to be thought of; it meant that all their efforts towards regeneration were to be neutralised at the outset through sheer,

wanton disregard of their manifest duty.

Accordingly, some time ago, the Waiwupu

Canton proposing that funds should be of a flect of gunboats, whose primary duty

should be the protection of shipping engaged in the West River trade. The question was also brought forward as to the authority which should be empowered to direct the movements of the fleet, and it was stated that the British Minister favoured the idea that

t should be controlled by the Commissioner of Customs. That suggestion was vigorous-combatted by the Viceroy in a letter to the Waiwupu which we published recently.

Starting with the plea as previously noted,

that "piracy is an endemic crime in the province of Kwanglung since time immemorial,"

the Viceroy wrote: "But there is a great deal of inconvenience if the additional cruisers now proposed be placed under the control of the Commissioner of Customs as requested by the British Minister. It is an unquestionable fact that the Commissioner has no power of a superintendent of police and interference out of his jurisdiction is not permissible. The sphere of influence should Carruthers took the ball at the western end and bowled to Turner, who opened candiously, but succeeded in notching a single offthe third ball, the over closing without further incident. Lanning played a straight one for a single. Turner smashed the last ball of the over for one. Both men were batting with caution. Carrothers' next over was a maiden. Lanning placed a neat two off M in to ler, and the change over took place, without any more juns. Turner, who was beginning to open out, drove Carruthers for two, Lanning now faced Main, who, was bowling a good length ball, and secured a boundary off his third. Rodolph at fine slips saved a sure boundary very smartly, and nothing further eventuated. Applause greeted a boundary hit by Turner off Carruthers' bowling. Runs continued to come slowly and Main's second ball nuzzled Lanning, who was now shaping with much more freedom. He scored a single, the ball being smartly fielded at third slips by Lambe. Carrothers harrowly escaped securing Lanning's sticks early in the next over, the ball rising a little high, and no runs eventuated. Main clean bowled Turner with the first ball of his over. - 101-5-27.

Beasley was the next man in, and Main bowled him for a duck 161-6-o.

Lieut. J. M. G. Taylor followed: Carrothers was now bowling to knowing, but the over closed without any addition to the acore, and Taylor faced Main, scoring a brace in short order, but succumbed, a couple of balls after, being caught from a pull to leg by Oller-

W. Edwards was next man in, and faced Carruthers, patting him for two, followed immediately after by a like number, high up in the air. Main now took the ball and Lapning placed him to mid-off for two, and neatly blocked an entuing "yorker," then hit him to square-leg for a single. Carrothers was having no luck, and Lanning found him easily playable. Edwards placed, Main for a single Carruthers followed with a maiden, and Ed-

Carruthers now gave way to McEuen at the western end, and Edwards skied his second ball to the fence and added a single off the last ball of the over. Edwards slipped, at great risk, a boundary off Main and followed it up by lifting the ball clean out of the ground for his vigorous hit being rewarded b spontaneous applause. Fdwards was now playing all-round the wicket and taking liberties with the bowling, which was in direct contrast to Lanning's cautious tactics, who, however prettily cut McEuen past paint for two and the over finished without further score, Edwards altered his position by a drive for one and the field again changed over. Edwards contributed a slashing two and the second century was recorded on the board, amidst prolonged applause, and he followed this with an additional one, then three, then litted the next ball for six. Anderson now replaced Main at the eastern end, and Lanning, after feeling him out, placed him to square-leg for one, and Edwards emulated-the good example. "

Sparke next took the ball from McEuen. Edwards having strike. The over was barren of results. SHANGHAI'S SECOND INNINGS.

Before resumption of play, after luncheon, both teams were photographed. 'A dull threatening sky without a single ray of sunshine continued in evidence throughout the after noon, and despite the liberal use of the roller, the wicket was soft and slow, making It a batting for Shanghai, the latter taking strike at the eastern end to the Hongkong Capthio's bowling. Ollerdessen placed Anderson in pos. s ssion of the wicket by a single, but he failed to score. Ollerdessen now faced Pearce and smashed him to the boundary. His strokes bespeke confidence and vigour, and his forward drives were cleanly and well timed; Hancock again handled the ball, bowling a nice length, and Anderson drove him for a brace, but did not succeed in supplementing the score before the over closed. Ollerdessen, opened with a fence bit and followed with a single to m d-on. A lee cut by Anderson to the boundary, and the ball changed hands, Edwards at third man neatly fielded a snappy cui, and Hancock', over became a maiden, as was the following one (Pearce's).

Ollerdessen patted Hancock for one and Anderson repeated. Clierdessen was playing fine cricket, keeping the ball well to earth Anderson placed one to his credit by a leg hit off Pearce, and the over closed. Three singles followed in quick succession from Hancock's bowling, Anderson's life being in peril for an instant by a smart return. Sharpe stopped a hot one at point and the spectators showed hearty recognition. The batsmen were on the delence for a time now, and runs came in drib lets, while the fielding was excellent and sunsaving. A hot one by Ollerdesser was dropped by Pearce, who was bowling to him. Anderson prettily glanced a single off Hancock, and C lerdessen followed by a drive to the boundary, The next ball bowled him. 30-:-18. Offerdessen's short innings, in which he compiled 18 by strong, vigorous, clean-cut strokes, was much appreciated by the spectators, and he received a salvo of hand-claps upon returning to the

After a single b Anderson, Hancock parrowly escaped clean. bowling Rodolph and damaged his fingers the next ball, play being suspended for a couple of minutes at Rodolph's request for a right hand

Anderson lifted Pearce into Chater Road for six and received applause, following up with a single. Anderson had settled down comfortably to his work; and Makin now relieved Peace at the eastern and, bowling Rodolph, who drove his first ball to the fence at mid on, and followed it up with a deuce in the same direction. Sharpe, who superseded R. Har cock, was leg-pulled to the lende for four, and Rodolph shortly after followed suit. Anderson cut Makin to flips fortwo, and then notched a single, and Rodolph added one. Anderson fulled Sharpe for. two, then added a single; and H. Hancock cle. verly stumped Rodolph 68-2-13.

Walker was next man in, and brought a light dring's with him. He opened his score with a four to the ferce off Makin. Sharpe nearly bowled Anderson, who appeared to have a feline lease of life. Play after this continued slow, the score board reading 70.

Walker broke the monotony by driving Sharpe for two fours and two in quick succession, and the Band struck up a lively tune as though in appreciation. Twice Anderson cut Makin to slips, and the third time succeeded in getting the ball to the boundary. A drive by Walker off Sharpe produced only a single. A smart bit of fielding and return by Dick single. From the last ball of the over Edwards | Hascock saved a run, but Anderson, not to be denied, Boiched another before the over

The bull was now transferred from Makin to Irvine at the eastern crease, and his over bowling at the other end and Anderson placed his second ball against the fence, and followed up with a brace,! The score was now first ball, but he compensated with a single to deep field. Anderson-blocked the remainder of the over, and Walker faced Beasley and Edwards socked Sparke for three, and Lan. pulled his fourth ball and leg for two, then added a single. Anderson improved the score by our, and faced, Irvine for next over, but showed great respect for him, and a maiden resulted. Walker got Beasley away greeted the century; and both batsmen put in successive singles. Irvine was now bowling to Anderson, who pulled him to the Boundary for the usual quote, Walker, got a single off suramoned before the prefectural government. Edwards put up one from M. in, and Lanning | Bestley, and a sundry placed him at the crease again. The ball found to fence and then added to travel past him for four. Both batsmen ope, Anderson and he each contributed one before the bowling changed to the other and. Walker got a single off Livine, but the over produced nothing further.

It was now 3.45 p.m. and 110 showed on the usual caution. Lanning opened by drawing board at a cost of 2 wickets. The attendance Mala to the fence for four and two balls after had improved and the Ladies', Stand was full The Band discoursed lively airs at intervals, and the light was somewhat better.

Pearco relieved Bearley, and Anderson and Walker each scored singles, but Irvine continued to be treated with respect, an occasional one bring all his bowling afforded. Anderson drove Pearce to the boundary, and so relieved the single file system of scoring.

R Hancock now took overbowling at the eastern end and Anderson added a by a leg-stroke, bringing the score to 130. He then chopped one to the off. Anderson drove Pearce to the fence and succumbed two balls after, Pearce clean bowling him. He contributed an exceedings ly useful 67, holding his wicast up by good; hard driving and vigorous cutting. His reception at the Pavilion was well merited. 135-3-67.

Brand stepped into the breach. Hancock caused great amusement by bowling clean over the wicket and Walker ducked to avoid, but added two off the next ball. Brand now faced: Pearce and appeared to be nervous, but played the last two balls of the maiden over very Hongkong took the field on the stroke of prettily, glancing nicely into slips. R. Hattiett two and Anderson and Ollerdessen led the Cock was gelting pace on to the ball but the Wulkerand Brand each scored singles played l'earce very cautionsly, ther the ked into slips and the Hongkong Captage Carles 142-4-42.

P. Lambe was next man in. Brand neatly blocked Hancock's over and no suns resulted, Lambe was caught by Edwards at third man, and retired with a duck to his discredit, 142-5-0.

At 4.20 p.m. McEuen faced Pearce, who finish. ed his over without any addition to the scoie, Brand continued to stonewall Hancock, but got the last ball away to the leg for one, thus breaking the ice. He continued to play Pearce In a gingerly manner, the over being productive of nothing beyond excessive care on the part of the betsman, Mukin now relieved Hancock and bowled a maiden to McEuen. The light was poor and the play wearispme, there being no runs for quite ten finutes. Another maiden by Pearce It seemed to be the aim of both batsmen to simply keep the wicket up. Another maiden by Makin, who had sent along some tempting ones. Brand took advantage of a soft ball from Pearce to cut it to the boundary. He followed this up by a single, and was called upon to face Sharps, who replaced Makin. He succeeded in adding one, as McEuen, and yet again frand got to the inactive end. Bowling change ing over, found him facing Pearce, whom he patted to cover for the inevitable' single. Mc. NOTES ON THE GAME.

The Hongkon -- Shanghai Interport Cricket Match was continued this morning. The weather, was overcast and very cloudy and a feight wind, was blowing. The w'ch had crumbled somewhat was, however, in good condition. The various players had a few minu es' pieliminary practice before the innings commenced with a view to getting their eye in. Punctually at 11 a.m. the ball went, and the Umpires went out to inspect the pitch. There wes an Saturday night, when stumps were drawn, were Shanghai 212; Hongkone 144 f it 4 wickets down; with Messrs, W. C. D. Turner and A. E. Lanning not out, with scores of so and 13 respectively. The Shanghai ' Skipper, ' Walker, led his team out at riof. a.m amidst:applaute, and was followed by the not-all batsmen. Aplent ful supplyof "sawdust was sent out to the bowlers, to enable them to get a good footing, the pitch being driff Thoggy. Linning drok first knock, against Main's bowling, and scored a single by a-hit to leg, off the over. Carcuthers assumed the attack at the western end, Lanning facing him. A single resulted from this over. Both bowlers kept a good length and the batsmen were not taking any liberties. Offerdessen at square leg put some must helding saving a boundary from Pearce by a clean pick us and a quick return. The con lution of the fourth oversaw 150 on the board, clearly indicating the nature of the bowling and keen fielding of the Shanghai men. Lanning scored a boundary off Main by & pretty cut pist fover , A similar effort by Turner enabled the telegraph' to register, to The first-ball of Main's next over saw Turner clean bowled by a beautiful b'll which whipred in sharply from the off. Score: 161-5-27. Turner had played his characteristic innings, which was style combined with safety. This batsman had made a right good stand, and gave a very useful exhibition. Cap. Beasley, Hongkong's next representative, followed and, after blocking a couple straight balls from Main, was tlean bowled with a good length fast ball, which beat him all the way. No addition having been made to the score, the to'egraph registered 16: 6 o. lieut. RETROSPECT.

A retrospect of the game as Var it has gone shows that both teams are fairly equal. , Shanghai has a good all-round team, the majority being good, steady bats and fiel ers. In bowling Shanghai is well represented and it speaks well for the strength of the Hongkong batting when such a respeciable total of 161 was compiled. Hongkong has reason to be proud of its batting this year, the first 6 wickets all realizing double figures, The match is at present in a very interesting state and though llongkong has a useful lead of 49 runs on the first innings the Shanghai team are by no means, vanquished yet: The glorious uncertainty of cricket has seldom been better examplified than by the various flickers of fortune this forencon, Hong kong on starting to-day with 144 runs dor 4 wice kets down were in a good position and a sub stintial total was expected. When the fcore reached 151 Hongkong ; chances were none too glorious, as the loss of Turner's wicket. followed by those of Capt, Beasley, and Lieutenant. Taylor for an additional two tuns, gave Shanghai a chance of getting Hongkong out lor a smaller total than they themselves scored. The advent of Edwards, however, completely altered the aspect of the game and a long and profitable partnership between Edwards and Lanning was the means of putting Hongkong again into the comfortable position they held this morning prior to the shirt. The batting of the Shanghai men was, attractive on Saturday and Hongkong was fucky to get rid of Ollerdessen, through being jun out. Ollerdessen, the Shanghai Recreation Club chack batsman, compiled his 54 ruffs, in splendid style and in good time scoting all found the wicket with freedom. The bat ing of up to 99. Anderson got Sharpe away to relieved-Pearce at the eastern end and bowled fine leg for 4 and a glance to square leg yielded a single. A snick by Rodolph g t past the wicket keeper and yielded a boundary, bringing 60 on the board.

> Anderson by a pretty cut got Makin away for a brace and a hit to mid-on gave him a single. Rodolph followed sust for a similar amount, and the over terminated. Sharps continued and Rodolph got a single past point followed by a hit to square leg which was well fielded. Rodolph in stepping out to hit the next one frem Sharpe, a slow deceptive one, stepped too far forward and was neatly stumped by Hancock. Score 68-2-13. Rodolph played a sound innings, but got somewhat reckless towards the latter end. Walker was the next batsman and got a boundary by a pretty cut off Makin, bringing 70 on the board. Anderson next faced Sharpe and played him | cock with a sprint got to it and safely held it very carefully, a maiden over. Walker got A very good catch. core: 156-7-3. A single off living over was all that was recorded. Capte Beasley relived Sharps and it was apparent the Mongling "Skipper" wanted to put in variety of bowling. Anderson with a drive to mid-off got a boundary and brought the score

Bearley resumed bowling and Walker got and put in a maiden over. Walker faced Beasley and placed him to mid-off for a single, Anderson doing likewise and causing the first century next festilted and Irvine resumed the bowling. Walker got him away to long-off for a single and Anderson next got a Boundary by being hit to sadare leg. The fland of H.M.S. King Alfred arrived on the ground shortly after luncheon, and played some enjoyable dear to the heart of the Hongkongite.

Reasley's next over was expensive, Walker despatching him twice to the boundary and graph now showed 110 on the board. Both batsmen scored singles off Irvine's next over now made in the bowling, Pearce going on in Carruthers and parke, of the other butters places Beastey, Walker blocked 3 balls and Both these howlers were, in good form and derson scoring a single, toe; to cover, and acted up to their reputation. sco ed a single off the last ball of the over. Pearce bowled a maiden over and Makin went on in place of Hancock at the eastern end McHuen treated this over with respect and a maiden resulted... The light was now getting vary poor and the batsmen apparently made up their minds to simply keep their wickets up Pearce put in a maiden over and was relieved by Makin.

Both bowlers put in majden overs, the batsmen refusing to be tempted. Brand got Pearce away to fine leg for 4 and followed up by repeating the stroke for a single. Hancock rang in another change of bowling, Sharpe going on at the eastern end in place of Makin. A leg glance by Brand brought 150 a maiden over. Sharpe, on resuming with his third ball, tempted McEuen who stepped out to a short pitched ball and was promptly stumped by H. Hancock. Score: 153-6-2. The retiring batsman had done nothing to material, ly increase the score, but tried the stonewalling game. Wheen was the next man and promp'ly opened his account with a hit to square I g for a single.

Wheen put some life into the game by hit ting ancock for a single to cover. With 15 minutes to go before drawing stumps both batsmen contented themselves with purely defensive tactics. THE FETE AND ILLUMINATIONS. With parderous clouds rolling overhead, eliminati g the stars from view; with myriads variegated lanterns casting their soft beams around-indeed the picture was a plendid one for the occasion: the illuminated fete on the H. K. C. C. ground on Saturday night, Festhrity was clearly marked on each side of the ground. The hundreds of lanterns which tossed to a gentle breeze drove one to think'o old old stories of fairyland, the twinkling hole of light in the trees around, was, to say the least, food for the imagination. The entertainment was booked to start at pine o'clock, but long before that crowds were i speking admission to the grounds. And by the time the band of the King Alfred got into full swing with lively tunes, men, spotlessly attired, and women, in their latest gowns; moved about amongst the shadows. Thus, with the beautiful surroundings, the music, and the promenading, the night was a precious one

In go few words the evening's entertainment can be summed up. The King Alfred band discoursed appropriate music. Excellency Sir Frederick Lugard and partyls arrival was heralded by the playing of National Anthem, and soon after the open ai cinematograph exhibition opened. Then lollowed the fireworks. By midnight the crowd thinned down. Then followed the adjournment to the Hongkong. Club, which was thrown open to the ladies, for supper, while the Band of the 3rd Middlesex Regiment played a select lion; of music. Supper ended, the dance took place, and it was not until the small hours

. The team is undoubtedly one with strong attack, and includes feveral bowlers of no mes ability, whilst every member of the Eleven ex-Wheen is capable of taking wickets Cooper, Main and Sparke should be dangerous a. fast wieket, whilst Carruthers and Anderson will make the ball play lively outica should the ground sull them, It is unusual & include in any Eleven three bowlers of so much similarity in style as 2 ain, Sparke and Cooper, but the selection committee in choose ing the latter evidently had not forgotten his -reputation as a "Demon", bowler when he fixured for the South, He has certainly regained some of his old form this season.

As a batting side, the team is not as stron as it might be desired. Rodolob, Ollerdessen Carruthers and Anderson are forcing batamet to be relied upon for mrs, and should rel sh the short boundaries of the Hongkong ground. I R: McRuen, Wheen and Sparke are plodding bats, and are useful in stopping a "rot" should such a catastrophe set in. Wheen is to be depended upon behind the wickets, and Lambe has a safe pair of hands should he be called upon to den the gloves.

Ouiten feature in the Eleven is the age of some of the players, five of whom do not aver age over 22 years, whilst the average age of the whole team cafnet be much above 27.

FRUGBY FUOTBAL

- The match to-morrow between the United Services and the Hongkong Club should be productive of a good tuissel. The Services have several first-rate players and are now it good condition. The Club, if they can get a represertative side, are a strong combination and will, we fancy, win by a few points. The Club have been very strong for the last two seasons and a beating would do them no harm on the contrary, it would probably open their eyes to the ir we k points and do them good If the United Services can win to-merrow -will chrait ly be a good performance, and no one, be he a civilian or a Service man, will

A PLUBY IN BEING.

THE NORTH SEA EXERCISES.

For a fortnight on and the game of war is being played in the North Sea. It is being played behind a wary impenetrable vell of official secrecy and secrecy is real nowadays in the navy. We have many good things of our very own, and it would be superfluous generosity to let possible enemies have the benefit of them. The fact is that our officers and men are a good long way in advance of those of any other country in the science of naval war, and they, mean to keep that lead. But though we do not know how they are doing it, we know more or less accurately what they have gone out to do. In the first place these mancouves are an exercise in "combined" training." As the brigade and divisional training of an army is followed by the exercises of combined divisions, so the regular individual training of the acparate squadrons and fisets has to be completed and co-ordinated by manactives and exercises in a big, concentrated home defenc : fleet. Some people would like the fleets to be always concentrated in this way. It would have very evil results. To get the best work out of your admirals and commotores they must be allowed to "run their own show," and not to be every day of the year under the immediate; eye. of a communder-in-chief. A colonel dues not insist on his companies all doing their company training at his doorstop, the knows better. Individual initiative and a sporting fleet rivalry are the fruits of the present

THE PERIL OF DARKNESS. We know, too, that the big fleet will practise buttle tactics in every shape and form, and that all the admirals will have their turn at the game. Some big problems will be worked out. If we ever have to fight in that foggy, storm-beaten North Sea; if will not be the big ships of the enemy that will give us trouble. four men can get at them they will ask no more of fortune. But they will have long and weary waiting outside the enemy's ports, and it is then that the menace of the torpedo will strain their nerves, and call for their keenest vigilance. So now the fleet is practising every device that can protect the battleships and cruisers against these secret and sudden dangers. The watchful screen of light craft, the searchlight, and the light, quick-fliing gun, all play their part in protecting the precious life of the formidable yet fragile capital ship.

THE CATALOGUE OF THE BHIPS. It is an imposing Armada that Lord Charles. Beresford has at his orders to-day. Nine other admirals and a commodore help him to look n'ter 109 ships of war. His cown Channel flect is there with its right and its left wingsthe Atlantic Fleet and the Nore division of the Home Fleet. The full establishment of these fleets includes 26 first-class battleships and 14 armored cruisers; 48 destroyers form the "mosquito" squadron, and besides these there are scouts, protected cruisers, and fleet auxiliaries.

Not one of these 100 ships has had to be specially commissioned for these exercises, it line 'scratch" assembly of mobilised units. lame duck with unfamiliar crews. These are all the "instantly ready" ships in home waters which have moved from their usual training grounds to a point of concentration in that Sea which has taken the place of the Mediterranean mathe coutre of our naval strategy. In the eight King Edwards the fleet has a Backbone. that cannot be matched in the world. They form the strongest homogeneous squadron affont, and of the other capital ships not a single one is obsolete or unfit to hold its own in the lice of battle. The Dreadnought is not with them. She has other work to do. She is an esperimental ship—the boldest experiment ever mide in naval construction-and her present business is to undergo trials of every conceivable sort, so that the 'lessons learnt; from ber may be applied to the improvement of her sisjers that are yet unfinished.

This concentration is a working illustration of the value and significance of the much-criticited Admiralty policy of distribution and organisation. It is an answer that ought to be conclusive to the criticism that they ignore the strategical importance of the North sea. The charge of inadequate training is met by the plain fact that the year 1907 will have seen the navy spend more time and energy on war training than it has ever done be ore. The exercises in themselves confute the charge that Lord Charles Beresford, as Commander-in-Chief, is notgiven sufficient opportunity of working with the ships he will have to command in time of war. To day he has the whole of his war command actually under his eye. Lastly, the Nore division of the Home Fleet takes its place on a fooling of perfect equality and equal efficiency with the other active fleets showing that it is in no sense a "make-believe " squadron, but an entirely trustworthy wing of the battle line. On the other side of the North Sea lies the "High Seas Fleet" of Germany-a fleet which comprises practically ber whole naval strength.

THE PRUITS OF POLICY.

A comparison of its power with that of Lord Charles Beresford's command is instructive. It has 16 battleships, carrying 64 heavy guns, firing 24,728 lb. of shot at each discharge. Our 26 carry 136 heavy guns, discharging 97,760 lb,he superiority in gue power is close on 4 to r. In armored coursers the disparity is to great that no comparison is possible. Yet behind this enormous conceptration of strepgih there still remain the divisions of the Home Fleet, the Mediterranean Floet, and the Reservo .- Morning Leader.

SINGAPORE BANKNOTES DEFACED.

FORGER SENT TO GALL.

The November Criminal Sessions opened at the Supreme Court this morning. As compared with the previous month this month's calendar was a light one-there being only one case to decide.

The case in question was that in which a coolie named Cheung Yok, Heung, who for a time was employed at Singapore, was charged on three indictments with forging and uttering banknotes. He pleaded "not guilty" on each count. #*

The following jury was empanelled :- Messrs A. A. H. Milroy (foreman), A. S. Currey, W. Hutchison, J. A., Young, H. P. Jertrum, C. H.

The accused failed to tender a reasonable excuse, and it was for the jury to decide whether he forged the notes or not, Accused denied the forgery. He admitted, however, having the bills in his possession; uttering two and attempting to pass the third, but refuted the accusation of knowing that the bills were forged while in his possession.

The jury brought in a verdict of guilty on the three counts and Mr. Justice Wise passed. sentence of five 'years' hard labour on each charge-sentence to run concurrently The Sessions were then adjourned sine die.

COAL MINES. [From Our Ostre Correspondent.]

Canton, 16th November, The Oi Yuk Mining Company formed by Chan Yuk-sun with a capital of $10,000 has been granted the privilege, by the Canton Bureau of Agricu'ture, Industry and Commerce, to open the coal mines in the Hang Tow Ling Hills in the district of Panyu.

AN FX-COLONEL WANTED.

Li Shai-kwei, formerly a colonel in Canton, and who was badly wanted by ex-Viceroy Shum Chun-hauen, when he was in office here, on charges of alleged corruption, is now also being wanted by the Canton authorities. Li is reported to have absconded, about two years ago, to the Straits Settlements, but he .h.s since been teported to have, on soveral occasions, secretly returned to the British Colony of Hongkong and even to and city of Canton itself. H.E. Wu Shang-lum, when acting as Viceroy here a few months ago, gave confidential instructions to the then Commander-in-chief, Li Chun, to keep a sharp look out for Li and Aimiral Li consequently offered a reward of $10,000 for Li's apprehension. Prompted by the reward numerous military officers of Canton are hunting M. S. Dollar, Br. s.s., 2,674, C. H. Cross, 16th for the alleged miscreant."

SEIZURE OF ARMS. A On the 14th instant, when the steam launch Tunk Fung was proceeding to Canton from the district of Tsang Shing, on the passengers being examined and searched, a number of rifles and other weapons were found among the luggage on the deck in the female passengers' section. Besides, five passengers were sho found in possession of revolvers on their persons. The suspects were arrested there and then and have been brought to Canton to stand their trial and o prove how they came in possession of thier. Zweena, Br. s.s., 941, A. Ramsay, 17th Nov., weapons. It will be remembered that tibe British launch was pirated some time last month, when she was on her way from the same district to Canton.

COLLISION NEAR GREEN ISLAND.

"HEUNDSHAN" CUTS DOWN A'JUNK.

A collision occurred this, forencon between the steamer Heungshan and a cargo-boat, of Kennedy Town, and as a result the cargo-boat was "cut down" The Heungshan was entering: the port from Macao at the time; the cargoboat, fully loaded with swine, was on her wayto the Slaughter-house Pier. As far as the report which reached us goes, it would appear that the cargo-boat attempted to cross the steamer's bows at short distance. Every effort was made by those on toard the Heungshan so avert the collision, but it was then impossible, and the Heingshan bore down on the junk, striking her amidships, and cutting her in two. A number of pigs were drowned, but, fortunately, no lives were lost-the junkmen being rescued from the water by the crew of the Heungshan, ...
